

News for Immediate Release
May 1, 2006

HARE STRIGENZ
DESIGN

Paula Hare Awarded 2006 Leading Change Award

For more information contact Paula Hare
414-272-0072

MILWAUKEE, WI – The Southeastern Wisconsin Chapter of The Association for Women in Communications (AWC) has honored Paula Hare, owner and creative director of Hare Strigenz Design as the Leading Change Award winner for 2006. The Association for Women in Communications and the Leading Change Award recognizes the achievements of professional communicators. The Leading Change Award is highly sought after by both men and women because it symbolizes excellence in communications.

The Association for Women in Communications is a professional organization that champions the advancement of women across all communications disciplines by recognizing excellence, promoting leadership and positioning its members at the forefront of the evolving communications era. It is a national organization open to professionals in numerous areas of the communications field, including advertising, public relations, marketing, corporate communications, journalism, graphic design, special events, development, non-profits and education.

Past winners of the Leading Change Award have included: Betty Ewens Quadracci, Nancy Zimpher, JoAnn Williams, Johnson Controls, and Aurora Health Care.

Founded in 1985, Hare Strigenz Design is a strategic communications, branding and graphic design firm producing breakthrough creative for a variety of businesses and organizations throughout the United States.

#

306 NORTH MILWAUKEE STREET • MILWAUKEE, WISCONSIN 53202
414.272.0072 • FAX: 414.291.7990 • INFO@HARE-STRIGENZ.COM
WWW.HARE-STRIGENZ.COM